Disaster Assistance Available for Small Businesses

Sacramento, CA - Small, non-farm businesses in 31 Texas counties may now apply for low interest disaster loans from the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA). These loans offset economic losses because of reduced revenues to farmers and ranchers caused by drought, announced Alfred E. Judd, Director of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center - West.

Small businesses in the following primary and neighboring counties may apply for economic losses that are attributable to the following incident dates and drought conditions:

Small businesses in the counties of Anderson, Cherokee, Collin, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Freestone, Henderson, Houston, Kaufman, Leon, Navarro, Rockwall and Tarrant are eligible to apply for these loans due to the drought beginning March 1, 2005 in the counties of Anderson and Dallas.

Small businesses in the counties of Blanco, Burnet, Comal, Gillespie, Hays, Kendall, Llano and Travis are eligible to apply for these loans due to the drought beginning May 1, 2005 in Blanco County.

Small businesses in the counties of Bastrop, Caldwell, DeWitt, Fayette, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Karnes, Lavaca and Wilson are eligible to apply for these loans due to the drought from July 1 through November 30, 2005 in Gonzales County.

Small businesses may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) of up to $1.5 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred. "Eligibility for these loans is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of 4%, a maximum term of 30 years, and are restricted to small businesses without the financial ability to offset the adverse impact without hardship," Judd said.

By law, SBA makes EIDLs available when the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture designates an agricultural disaster. Secretary Mike Johanns declared these disasters at the request of Governor Rick Perry.

Businesses primarily engaged in farming or ranching are ineligible for SBA disaster assistance. Agricultural enterprises should contact the Farm Services Agency (FSA) about the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) assistance made available by the Secretary's declaration. However, in drought disasters nurseries are eligible for SBA disaster assistance.

For information and application forms call toll-free (800) 659-2955, or visit SBA's website at www.sba.gov/disaster. Hearing impaired individuals may call (800) 877-8339. Mail completed applications to the U.S. Small Business Administration at 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

The deadline to apply for these loans is October 2, 2006.
